seeking restoration will not be subject to the student conduct or Title IX process. Exemption from student conduct charges will be provided to the student for whom assistance was sought and any witnesses who were present.

Smoke-Free Campus

In the spring of 2017, Fairfield University was designated as tobacco-free. The use of tobacco and tobacco products was no longer permitted. This policy has been expanded to include a prohibition on smoking of any kind anywhere on our campus through the use of, for example, cigarettes, cigars, pipes, and electronic cigarettes and vaping devices. On-campus cessation programs are available to students. Those seeking to overcome addictions to the use of these devices are strongly encouraged to contact the Student Health Center or Counseling & Psychological Services.
